

Distribution of the houses in the county per zipcode and relative average price

It looks like the most expensive houses are concentrated around the waterfront.

Distribution of the houses in the county per zipcode

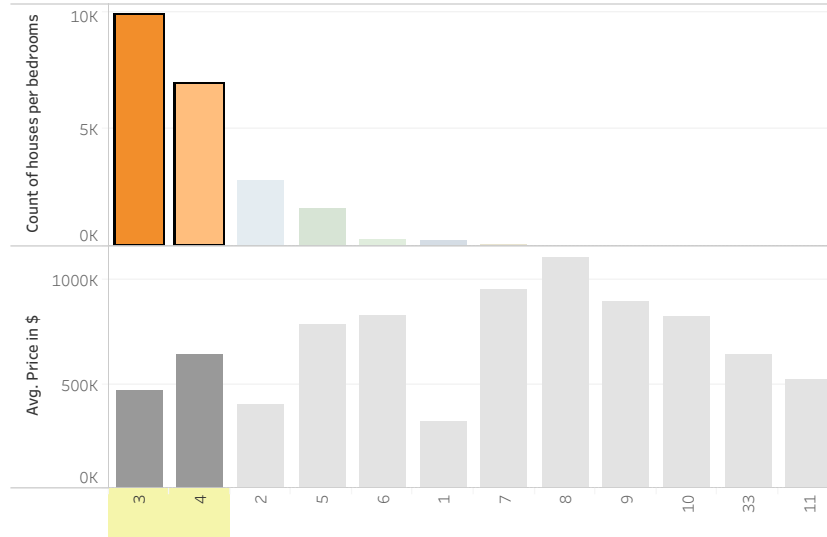

The houses constructed in between the 1900 and 2000 are the majority. The most recent constructions belong to the 2010 forward and the have the highest average price.

3 and 4 bedrooms houses: best sellers

It looks like the most requested houses on the market are those with 3 or 4 bedrooms. They are not the most expensive houses in terms of average prices, however it has been increases in time.

Number of houses grouped by number of bedrooms and relative average house price

Price trend in time

Features of the most expensive houses

The most expensive houses have been constructed in between the '70s and the '90s, they have one floor, they are not renovated, they have a basement, with an excellent grade by the county and with a beautiful view.

